Hi Gary;

Wanted to get back with you about scheduling. One of the key people for our call is traveling, so it will probably be early next week. Here are some next steps that come to mind for a productive call. I will contact Ekwok and ask their permission to send the full report to you before we meet. I was also thinking it would be good to invite Lorraine King, the Ekwok Tribal Environmental Director to be part of the call as well. Can you think of other next steps that would be helpful?
